NEWSLETTER OF THE SENIOR TENNIS PLAYERS CLUB, INC.

OCTOBER 1997

Dow Tournament Well-Attended Success

Nearly 250 members of Senior Tennis enjoyed participating in the Second Annual Jack Dow Senior Tennis Tournament. The tournament was held at the Northwest Athletic Club Highway 100 facility September 8-12.

Nine courts were reserved and in constant use. Participants checked in at the front desk with no waiting, thanks to the efficiency of Grayce Aberle and her crew. Dick and Shirley Pratt were at the assignment desk assigning courts and time of play, under the direction of Ernie Greene. Dick Lidstone and his volunteers were on hand to help players and answer questions.

Matt Little was chairman of this event and had assembled a committee not only willing but capable of providing an outstanding tournament.

Another star of the planning was Percy Hughes, who, with his group of volunteers, coordinated the three round robin groups of players 2.5 and below. One of the participants wrote afterwards, "Congratulations to all of you on a job well done. The attendance and the enthusiasm speak for themselves."

The first day started off with a bonus—Star Tribune columnist Doug Grow wrote about Jim Taylor, a participant who is legally blind. (Matt Little recommended Jim as a subject for Grow's column.) Grow explained what being able to participate in the tournament meant to Jim. WCCO-TV called asking if they could film Jim playing tennis, to be shown on Ralph Jon Fritz's sports segment on the evening news. Jim was on television four times, and Senior Tennis was frequently mentioned. Hopefully, this coverage will encourage many others with disabilities to participate. Jack Dow, who was also legally blind, would have been thrilled knowing Jim was part of Senior Tennis.

The tournament was sponsored by HealthPartners, Prince Sporting Group, Michael Lynne's Tennis Shop, the Dow family, and KLBB 1400 AM. Embers, Dayton Target and STPC contributed door prizes. Thanks too to the staff of Northwest Athletic Club, who were always present when we needed assistance.

The closing ceremony on Friday was held before a full house; the expected 50 attendees swelled to 76. Ernie Greene presented the awards for first place and runner up. Prince Sporting Group and Michael Lynne's Tennis Shop donated the awards, and STPC provided the trophies.

The Dow family represented by Jeff Dow, along with Percy Hughes, presented the Dow Trophy to Mary Kaminski, this year's recipient. Mary's response was a marvelous testimony to the value of Senior Tennis in her life.

The winners are listed in the Tournament and League Results column inside. ■

Dow Trophy Winner, Mary Kaminski's Acceptance Speech

When I joined the Senior Tennis Players Club thirteen years ago, never in my wildest dream did I picture myself receiving a trophy. Before I retired from Land O'Lakes, I looked for an activity that would be physical—to keep this body healthy—something that would also mean contact with people, and something that would be a new challenge and at the same time, fun. It had to be fun!

Tennis! Yes! I had heard it's a lifetime sport so I took some lessons and joined STPC. This club has been all those things to me, as I know it has been to hundreds of people. I got involved, I guess, if I did all that the Senior Tennis Times said I did. But I'm humbled because I was given so much back in return. It's been an adventure seeing the Club grow, I'm still healthy, I've met tons of interesting people, and I've loved each hour on the tennis courts.

I congratulate Matt Little and his hard-working committee on a great tournament. I played two days this week, and everyone was having fun. That's the best part of STPC—it's fun!

Jack Dow indeed started something unique when he founded STPC, and we will always honor his memory for it. Just think: 1700 seniors bopping around on tennis courts, some with knee supports, arm supports, etc. and with their arthritic bones, but alive and well.

I thank Dick Lidstone, Sue Larson, Grayce Aberle, Percy Hughes and Jack Wallin, the Awards Committee, for naming me to receive the Jack Dow Trophy. This is a great honor. Thank you!

Line Calls

By Dick Lidstone, STPC President—The big event in September was the Jack Dow Tournament, which concluded on September 12 with the finals and award ceremonies. At the awards ceremony, attended by 75 people, the winners were announced, and Mary Kaminski gave an inspirational speech on what STPC has meant to her and how gratified and humble she was to receive the Jack Dow Traveling Trophy.

Our thanks to Matt Little and Sue Larson, chair and co-chair of the event, and all of the other volunteers who made it run so smoothly. The good planning and execution of the plan paid off, and was a great improvement over last year's tournament. Next year's should be even better!

Speaking of planning, Jim Tornoe and his Long Range Planning Committee presented a statement of purpose for STPC to the board. After some discussion it was adapted slightly and then adopted by the board. It will be published in future communiqués. This was a good start for the long range planning effort.

Two board members, Norm Diamond and Marianne Davidson, have resigned to concentrate on other activities. Norm will finish his articles in the Times; Marianne, who has completed her scheduling of courts and teams for the Eastern half of our area, is leaving immediately. It is with reluctance that I accept their resignations. Both have done a very fine job and will certainly be missed.

That was the bad news. We are now looking for Board members to begin serving in April 1998. If you're interested in serving on the board, please complete the form in this issue and send it to the nomination committee. ■

Love Stories

Prince Provides Leadership In Business and Community

Part One

By Norm Diamond—Luther Prince, 70, is not the hieroglyphics "Prince of Paisley Park" nor even the son of the Prince tennis racquet manufacturer. He's also not the Prince who someday may assume the throne of England if Queen Elizabeth finally throws in the royal towel. And you can be certain he's not Luther, one of the Batman series villains.

Luther Prince

In fact, Prince is currently president of Manpower, Inc., an inner city economic development non-profit corporation, and business development manager of the Urban Ventures Leadership Foundation. To say he achieved his lofty status in the Twin Cities community without a struggle would be the understatement of the past four decades. In the words of the now famous Smith & Barney TV commercial, "he earned it!"

His other important business accomplishments: president of Prince & Associates, a topline company that conducted market research, developed products and offered them to organizations who wanted to expand and diversify; president and CEO of Ault, Inc., a corporation he started with a worth of $233,000 which increased to $8 million over a several-year period; and his career start with Honeywell, Inc. as Director of Research and Development of advanced flight control systems for supersonic aircraft and ballistic missiles. His expertise in the science field grew with achieving bachelor and master electrical engineering degrees from the prestigious Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The only child of a sometimes unemployed railroad brakeman and porter and his wife, Luther was born in Fort Worth, Texas, on September 1, 1927.

He graduated from an all-black high school, I.M. Terrell in Fort Worth, that is not standing today. He proceeded on to college at Tuskegee Institute near Montgomery, Alabama, and after one year transferred to Ohio State University in Columbus. After a year-and-a-half at OSU, he was drafted into the US Army in January, 1946. Attending Officers Candidate School in Virginia, he was commissioned a second lieutenant at age 19. He served in California and Okinawa and was honorably discharged in 1948. In 1952 he married Evelyn Berryman of Warren, Ohio, the marriage producing four Princes including princesses. Several years ago he became a widower and is now escorting a significant other.

Major awards include: Minnesota Business Hall of Fame, Minneapolis Small Businessman of the Year, Charles Poe Award from the Metropolitan Economic Development Association and Commendation from the National Association of SBICs. While president of the Minneapolis Urban League, he created and implemented an initiative in economic development that ultimately led to the MEDA founding. He has previously served on the boards of the United Way, Urban League, Big Brothers, Minneapolis Urban Coalition, and Minneapolis Employers Association.

A member of the STPC for over three years and an avid tennis player, Prince also counts golf and surfing the Internet as major hobbies. We discussed the remarks made by Richard Williams to the media about the shoving incident regarding his daughter, Venus, and court opponent Irina Spirlea at the recent US Tennis Open in New York City. Read what Prince has to say when we conclude his profile next month. ■

Genuine Seniors Finish in Perfect Order

By Al Uhl—The Genuine Seniors League, reduced to four teams for the 1997 summer season, finished what may be its final season in perfect order. The GSL teams (deverly named after cardinal numbers) ended their 12-week schedule one, two, three, four.

Team One, headed by Larry Bordsen, won 77 sets through the season, which had only a single rain-out. Eleven sets back was Team Two with 66 winning sets. Dean Guenther and Darrel Sobraski shared the team captaincy. Team Two overtook Team Three, headed by Joell Anderson on the final Wednesday of the season. Team Three had 65 wins. Team Four, with 56 wins, was headed by Dan Nedoroski.

The GSL, which has been open to all comers in STPC since 1990, has thinned down from a ten-team league at its high point in 1992 to four teams this year. Most players are rated from 3.0 to 4.0.

GSL teams have generally been groups of men with some women playing in some seasons. Three women played in the league this year: Jo Rolling for Team One, and Karen Knutson and Carol Brown for Team Three. ■

Hit 'N Giggle Women's Summer League

By Shirley Pratt—Our season was completed with an "all play" and pot luck picnic at Brookview Park in Golden Valley on August 27.

Our second half of the season finished as follows:

- Team 1: 22 sets, 11 points
Captains Marcia Hinitz, Vi Schaber
- Team 2: 22 sets, 10 points
Captains Dori Shadinger, Nan Holland
- Team 3: 12 sets, 6 points
Captains Iris Abel, Rose Sanders
- Team 4: 13 sets, 6 points
Captains Joyce Olsen, Joyce Anderson

Final Totals

- Team 2 Winner with 26 points
- Team 1 Runner up with 22 points
- Team 4 14 points
- Team 3 10 points

Our picnic was fun, the food was scrumptious, the fellowship great! Thanks to all who participated in a super year!

Next year's captains are: Marcia Hinitz, Nan Holland, Rose Sanders, and Joyce Olsen—they will pick their co-captains. We had many players on some teams so if you'd like to have a team or be on one, we're open to a six team league for next year. Please call me, Shirley Pratt, at 433-3583, if interested. ■

Super Seniors

By Dick Pratt—The Super Seniors League, a USTA-sanctioned league, was a very evenly matched group all season. It is a two-team league, and all members are at least 65 years old. Play was held at Saint Louis Park Junior High School on Thursdays this summer

The playoff was held at Nicollet Tennis Center on August 21. The competing teams were captained by Mel Baken and Norm Densmore, and Lloyd Marengo and Clayton Hughes. Lloyd Marengo and Clayton Hughes' team won by just two points, a very close match! A pizza and pop party was held at Nicollet after the play. A good time was had by all.

Thanks again to USTA/NWTA, our sponsors (we became an accepted USTA league this year). There is talk about expanding the league next year. How about joining us? Contact Dick Pratt at 433-3583 with your ideas and if you wish to play. ■

USTA Women's 2.5 Tuesday Evening Summer League

By Shirley Pratt—Captains Ada Nuhn and Doris Doll's prayers were answered: the rains allowed the USTA Women's 2.5 Summer League to play six out of ten matches!

We celebrated the end of the season with a dinner (on a rainy night) at Doolittle's Air Café. Ada Nuhn's winning team were awarded very special towels with the USTA logo and the words, "USTA League Tennis 1997 Local Champions" embroidered on them. Doris Doll's runners-up team were awarded very nice Igloo water cooler jugs, also sporting the USTA logo on them.

Our thanks go to the USTA/NWTA and to Liz Kamish, the area league coordinator, and Joan Dawe, the division league coordinator.

Our winning team advanced to the area sectionals, played at Richfield High, Lilydale, and Augsburg Park. Since captain Ada Nuhn and co-captain Joyce Anderson were unavailable, our senior women's coordinator, Shirley Pratt, acted as captain for this event. Eight players competed in matches on August 22-23. Each match consisted of three doubles and two singles, playing the best two out of three. We played against three other teams. We did not win, but had a great time. It was exciting for the team.

This enthusiastic group had a great time and could be coaxed to do it again. The USTA held a party for all participants in the Decathlon courtyard on Saturday night. It was a perfect evening with a wonderful taco-style buffet dinner, a great DJ, and prizes. One of our players, Jean Ramsay, won a super big bag by Penn, a sponsor. We expect to see her pack all her luggage along with her racquet in this bag.

Thanks again to captains Ada Nuhn, Joyce Anderson, Doris Doll, Jenny Caldwell, and Shirley Pratt. A good time was had by all and we are looking forward to next year! ■

Playing Nice: Encouraging Civility on the Courts

By Bob Tischbein—There are rules and customs governing the playing of tennis that promote fairness and civility. Some of you might not be aware of them—after all, how many of you have read the USTA Rule Book? Here are a few "rules of the road" that are frequently violated. Look them over and mention them to your playing group if you think they're being ignored. Playing nice makes tennis so much more enjoyable for everyone!

Captains' Corner

By Chuck Emme—A vital part of all organized tennis groups is an adequate substitute list. However, being on this list brings responsibilities.

If you agree to play at a specified time, you have now assumed the duty of a regular player; to be at the court on time and pay for court fees if required.

If you can't meet this obligation, it is your responsibility to get a replacement. Remember, no group wants to play shorthanded. ■

Foot Faults

Foot faulting was rampant at the Jack Dow Tournament, according to observing tennis pros. Here's a review of the rules:

The server shall throughout the delivery of the service:

- a. Not change his position by running or walking.
- b. Not touch with either foot any area other than that behind the baseline.
- c. The server may stand anywhere in back of the baseline between the imaginary extension of the center mark and the doubles sideline. ■
