Newsletter of the Senior Tennis Players Club, Inc. December 2002

The 2003 renewal project is running full blast, and STPC members have been sending in their renewal forms in a constant stream.

But we need to hear from the rest of you! Please send in your dues as soon as possible. All you have to do is check the membership information on your invoice, sign the bottom, and send it back with your check for $20 in the envelope we've provided. Simple.

The deadline for sending in your renewal is January 1, 2003. This guarantees your listing in the 2003 membership roster. Later returns might not make it.

The Jack Dow Senior Development Award

On November 2nd at its annual meeting and awards banquet at Fort Snelling, the USA Northern Section awarded the Jack Dow Senior Development honor to John and Helen Stecklein of Roseville who have teamed up to make a big impact on the STPC.

John and Helen Stecklein John's contributions, made from 1988 through 1994, have carried over to this day. His leadership as president of STPC involved a variety of areas, ranging from revision of the bylaws to securing early morning playing time. His wife, Helen, has been a member of the STPC since 1993. She has been on the board of directors and served as club president in 2000 and 2001. The STPC has benefited from her business and financial expertise. Our congratulations!

The January/February 2003 Senior Tennis Times Issue

Lob Notes from the "Prez"

This fall was a headliner for the Club with the Jack Dow 20th Anniversary Celebration. A first tennis event was held at Fort Snelling. The first "Doubles Troubles" event with Percy Hughes and Roger Boyer, will be an annual event. More "fun" stuff coming up as well. We are meeting our expenses but are having to draw on our reserves as inflation hits us all.

In April we will have five board members who will have completed their terms. Please call us now with nominations to fill these vacancies. If the Club has been a big part of your life, how about giving your own talents back! Don't always leave it to others—remember, tennis is a team sport!

Let's be thankful for the coming holidays and that we're still playing (and don't forget the eating part)!

Courtfully Yours,
Jean Murdock

Happy Holidays!

What a Smash!

By Jean Murdock

The first "Doubles Troubles Strategy" by Percy Hughes and Roger Boyer held on Thursday, November 14th at Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center started with an exhibition of doubles play with Roger, Reed-Sweatt staff member Dilcia Pedersen, pros Abdul Idi and Laurie Kozlak.

Roger then gave a brief talk on what to do and what not to do! Don't stretch before play but after you play. Wear two pairs of socks and buy good shoes! Always move forward and don't back up to hit an overhead. Those are only a few things the seniors learned.

Everybody was assigned to a court with a partner and the instructors gave us three drills to work on. Bill Sturm did a wonderful job organizing the lunch menu and bringing it to the club where volunteers Roz Bernstein, Ronnae Wagner and Winnie Lund had it ready for the hungry players.

Door prizes were drawn. Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center

donated 10 cans of tennis balls, Jones-Harrison Residence gave two free massages, Fritz Christensen donated a funny framed tennis cartoon, Pete Cameron, president of the Twin Cities Jazz Society, donated three jazz events with tickets for two. The Grand Prize donated by Kevin MacDonald of the Twin City Tennis Supply was a Gamma racket won by lucky Tony Shostak.

Fort Snelling Tennis Party

By Connie Waterous

More than 90 people played tennis and socialized at the new Fort Snelling Tennis and Learning Center on Saturday, October 19. It was possibly the largest single turn-out for a tennis party sponsored by our club. Organizers speculated that the new Fort Snelling Center was itself an important draw, and the late afternoon/early evening times scheduled were also convenient for many players. As it turned out, we added an hour to the three originally scheduled and probably could have added more.

Whatever the reason, there were a big bunch of happy tennis players at the Fort Snelling Center playing, noshing, and socializing. There were nothing but compliments for the Fort Snelling facility. In particular, the lighting on the seven courts was excellent, with plenty of light and virtually no glare. The reception and socializing area was also spacious without being cavernous, and provided a good setting for meeting and greeting old friends.

Many many thanks have already gone to the people who organized and/or worked on the tennis aspect of the party: Gordy Manaige, Duncan Welty, Jean Murdock and me.

But the food should come in for special attention because Hazel Nelson Stutzman and Betty Porter really outdid themselves (if possible) with a delicious buffet, which they served over a three-hour period.

It's always fun to report on a successful event, and the Fort Snelling party certainly qualifies as a success, thanks to our many wonderful members!

For the Love of the Game

By Jean Barrett

No greater love hath man. This might be attributed to 88-year-old Ed Silberman and his lifelong affair with tennis, which began as a student at North High School and continues today with daily matches on the home court where he lives and other nearby courts from 8:30 to 10:30AM—yes, every day! And when Minnesota treats its inhabitants to ice, snow and bone-chilling winds, he simply transfers his game to sunny Palm Springs for three months, where he also plays on a daily basis. Don't doubt or argue—he amazingly has the records to verify. If you ask, I think he could tell who, where and when he played on any given date, averaging from the high 200 to the low 300 times per year.

Minnesota, he advanced through assistant, associate and finally full professorships until he retired in 1981. Not one to rest on his laurels, he continued teaching and research at the St. Anthony Falls Hydraulic Laboratory for several years and continues this one day a week to this day.

In his eminent career, honors have accrued to this astute gentleman too numerous to relate, some of which can be found in Norm Diamond's article about him in the October 1996 Senior Tennis Times.

Well traveled, as business dictated, his tennis racquet was never out of reach and he has played the game in Portugal, Spain, the Netherlands, England, Hawaii, Japan and Mexico. As to the latter, he was once coerced from his serene cruise ship to do battle on the red clay courts of Acapulco. I don't believe it. I think this racquet slinger left the ship and went looking for yet another "shoot out" in the tennis "corral."

Not only does Ed possess numerous degrees, honors and accolades, he also possesses two shoulder replacements, two hip replacements and two knee replacements, the likes of which his movements on the court belie. Truly a bionic man.

When I went to meet him for this article, I expected only to observe but was pleasantly surprised to find one of the foursome missing, thus allowing me to play three sets with Ed and his buddies, Bill and Bob. I was definitely the "weakest link."

Though tennis has been a prime factor in his life, his other accomplishments are even more impressive. He has garnered a BA and a Masters in civil engineering and a start on his doctorate, which was interrupted by World War II when he began a five-year stint with the U.S. Corps of Engineers, retiring as a Lieutenant Colonel. Then, beginning as a research associate at the University of

Tennis Rules Quiz (Final Installment)

Contributed by David Sommer

Most players understand the Rules and Code of tennis fairly well. But there are some points that are commonly misunderstood. Here's a Q and A to test yourself on these difficult points. [Source: USTA Rules of Tennis, copyright 2000.]

Beyond the Rules, there is the Code which regulates non-officiated matches. The most important item in the Code is in section 6: "There is a subtle difference between player decisions and those of an on-court official. An official impartially resolves a problem involving a call, whereas a player is guided by the unwritten law that any doubt must be resolved in favor of his opponent."

Beyond this general principle, there are some subtle points that we may easily miss.

- Q. Who should call a ball in or out?
- A. Usually (section 5) "Player makes calls on his side of the net. A player calls all shots landing on, or aimed at, his side of the net." We all know this. However, there is also section 13: "Player calls his own shots out. With the exception of the first serve, a player should call against himself any ball he clearly sees out regardless of whether he is requested to do so by his opponent." Why that exception of the first serve? My guess is that a crafty player, seeing Receiver blasting his first serve for a winner could give himself a second chance by crying "my serve was out!" I certainly don't know anyone that devious!
- Q. What do you do if you and your partner disagree on a call?
- A. Section 14: "If a player and his partner disagree about whether their opponents' ball was out, they shall call it good... The tactful way to achieve the desired result is to tell your partner quietly that he has made a mistake and then let him overrule himself. If a call is changed from out to good, the point is replayed only if the out ball was put back into play." Note that replaying is a last resort. It happened to me in a recent match – my partner called opponent's lob "out", but I saw it was good and played it. Opponent hearing the out call didn't bother to play my return. In this case, the only fair thing was to replay the point.

- Q. May you ever question an opponent's call? If so, how?
- A. Section 16: "When a player genuinely doubts his opponent's call, the player may ask: 'Are you sure of your call?' If the opponent reaffirms that the ball was out, his call shall be accepted. If the opponent acknowledges that he is uncertain, he loses the point. There shall be no further discussion." Note that the query is respectful, and the opponent's integrity is not questioned.

Drive On the Side of Caution

By UCare Minnesota

Whether it's bad weather or rush hour traffic, driving safely often can be a challenge. If vision problems or other conditions, such as arthritis, are making driving difficult or uncomfortable for you, talk with your doctor. Automakers also make adaptive equipment that may help you be more comfortable on the road, such as pedal extenders, tilt steering, and back rests.

UCare Minnesota offers several ideas to help enhance your safety on the road:

- Keep the windows, mirrors, headlights, and windshield clean.
- Scan at least a half block ahead for possible problems when driving in the city.
- If traveling with others, designate a "navigator," so that the driver can concentrate more fully on the road.
- If your car has day/night settings on the rearview mirror, use them to cut down on headlight glare.
- Turn your headlights on about a half hour before sunset. If traveling at dawn, leave them on about a half hour after sunrise.
- Always wear your seat belt.
- Ask your doctor to check your list of medications for potential effects they may have on your driving.

UCare Minnesota is an independent, nonprofit health maintenance organization (HMO) serving more than 100,000 members. UCare offers three health plans for seniors: UCare for Seniors, a Medicare+Choice product for Medicare beneficiaries in the metropolitan area and adjacent counties; UCare SeniorSelect, a Medicare Select product; and Minnesota Senior Health Options for seniors eligible for Medical Assistance with or without Medicare. For more information, visit www.ucare.org or call (612) 676-3500 or 1-877-523-1518 (toll free). The TTY number is (612) 676-6810 or 1-800-688-2534 (toll free).

Percy's Tennis Rhythms

By Percy Hughes

Today, Nov. 14, 2002, 74 club players attended the Roger Boyer, Percy Hughes Doubles Troubles Clinic. It was a GREAT clinic under Roger's supervision. I'm sure all 74 entrants will agree! Roger's doubles exhibition, showing our members what they would be doing was brilliant. I talked to MANY players that said they did NOT come to lessons, but thought they would find time to do so now, realizing from the presentation that adding instruction would be advantageous to their game. Many realize how important drills are --- many do not. I don't believe your game can improve without teaching assistance. If possible, find time to add at least one lesson session per week -- you'll like it, and your game definitely will. I thank all the helpers we had -- the food was "outstanding!" Those responsible for all the "goodies" will be mentioned elsewhere in our newsletter. Two Presidents, our pres, Jean Murdock and president Pete Cameron of the IC Jazz Society teamed up for "King of the Hill," and won on their court. Pete also gave some prizes in the Jazz Society's name.

Please put December 19, 2002, the regular 8:30 Thursday morning lesson on your calendar. That's the Roger Boyer's Christmas Drills session (it's also his BD recognition time). Just a few more instructions: (1) READ your Newsletter (2) Go to drills (3) Talk to anyone of your pros when there's something you don't understand. We have an outstanding teaching staff, plus they're very caring human beings, so ----- NO FOOT FAULTS!

National Championship Winner!

Tim Burke, Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center (formerly Nicollet) pro, captained a 4.5 men's senior team, a member of which was Roger Boyer. They won the national championship in doubles October 28, 2002 in Palm Springs, California. Congratulations, Tim!

In Memory...

June Greiner, 74, of Saint Anthony, formerly of Minnetonka, died October 29. June was a former radio and television personality as an announcer with "Music with the Hormel Girls" and as Miss June in the 1950s when she started "Romper Room" in the Midwest.

June joined the Senior Tennis Players Club in 1984. She met her husband, Frank Perry, also an STPC member, at a club tennis vacation in Naples, Florida. Our heartfelt condolences to her husband, Frank, to his daughters, to June's sons, and to their families.

As a non-profit organization, the Senior Tennis Players Club gratefully accepts donations, memorials and estate gifts.

Ed and Idell, his wife of 61 years, have four children, three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and several "grand dogs." While Ed busied himself with his distinguished career, Idell distinguished herself with a successful travel enterprise arranging and conducting European tours for teachers and students.

When I asked about the secret to his good health and achievements, he dismissed it with two words: "good genes." I sense there's more to it than that—I sense a lifelong drive to excel, and then just doing it, not letting health, surgical or any other concerns get in the way.

As I took leave, Ed told me he would be playing bridge that afternoon, a twice weekly occurrence, and my guess is that in that venue too, he leaves his opponents in awe. Whatta guy!

Roger Boyer's Birthday/ Holiday Drills

Roger Boyer's popular annual drills will be held Thursday, December 19, at the Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center from 8:30 to 10:00 a.m.

All members are invited to attend this event, one of the most popular drill sessions of the year. You won't want to miss it. Be sure to attend!

Winter Plans for Super Seniors

Super Senior Leagues are forming for play in January, February, and March. (USTA members only) There will be over-60 men's leagues and women's leagues for 3.5 and 4.0. The League fee is $7, and court costs depend on club policy. Contact Kristi Bushinski for more information at 952-887-5001. She will keep a list for players and captains needing each other.

Summer Super Senior mixed doubles players, age 60 and over, are planning six weeks of playtime again in 2003 at the Reed-Sweatt Tennis Center, starting July 10 and ending with a pizza party on August 21. Watch for future articles.
