In Memory...

Margaret Gronseth, 81, of Edina died suddenly on April 3 of pneumonia and chronic lymphocytic leukemia. She was a longtime STPC member.
Our condolences to her sister, Donna Olson, and to her niece, nephew and their families.

Anna Westwood, wife of STPC member Wayne Westwood, died March 11. Our sincere condolences to Wayne, their three children, and their families.

As a non-profit organization, the Senior Tennis Players Club gratefully accepts donations, memorials and estate gifts.

Mission Statement

The primary purpose of the STPC is to provide tennis playing opportunities to people 50 and older for their mental, physical, and social well-being.

5th Annual Mayor's Play Day

By Joanne Labernick

Please join the STPC and InnerCity Tennis (ICT) at the 5th annual Mayor's Play Day on May 17 from 1-3pm at the Martin Luther King Park tennis courts (next to the Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center, 4005 Nicollet Avenue S, Minneapolis)!

Many STPC members volunteer their time as Coach/Mentor/Tutors at InnerCity Tennis, a non-profit providing character-building tennis programs for inner city youth.

The Mayor's Play Day was organized five years ago by the STPC, ICT and former Minneapolis mayor Sharon Sayles-Belton. Please join us as ICT Executive Director Roger Boyer leads an afternoon of fun-filled skill activities and a celebration of intergenerational relationships! For further information, please call Karen McGlynn of ICT at 612-803-0350 or myself at 612-522-8493.

Summer Team Tennis

Last year six teams competed in the west metro area. The organizer, Marv Schneider, would like to expand to eight teams, with two divisions. Winners in each division would play for the championship. We need captains. Please volunteer, either as captain or player. Call Marv at 952-975-1895

Percy's Tennis Rhythms

By Percy Hughes

Hooray, team—outdoor tennis is here! Sound good? Of course, but now I have a few reminders for you. Additions to your equipment list are: sun glasses, visor or cap, sun screen, maybe fresh strings for your racquet, and also a new overwrap for the handle. Check your supply of socks also. I think you wear out more socks, playing in warmer weather conditions. Drink a sensible amount of liquid (water, mostly) during your time on court.

Have you signed up for the annual Jack Dow tournament? I hope you have—there's time, but please do it now. If you don't have a partner, just make note on your entry form, and we'll help find a partner for you.

I'm being a bit redundant, because I'm so proud of our members who are there for our mentor, Roger Boyer and his ICT year around program. You members are totally awesome!!! There's neat "payback" for our members on Monday mornings also, when Roger takes his ICT team through a very thorough work out—very thorough!!! It's a complete clinic for his members, and that's every week—check it out, if you have the time and a sincere interest in helping young "crumb snatchers" (our future) to learn more than just the game of tennis. Become a CMT, under Roger's guidance.

Attention! Our latest 12 lessons award winner: Matthew Macheledt. Congratulations, Matthew. Continue taking lessons—enjoy the wonderful fellowship in the classes; you'll also notice that your stroke mechanics are improving, and that's making you want to play more often—right? Some of our seniors play five days a week—that's fine, if your body can handle that much time "between the lines." Equipment plays a big part in enjoying lots of playing. Make sure your shoes are comfortable—that's very important.

The Jack Dow Tournament has a wonderful surprise for all players, also for members who were not able to play this year. A one-hour exhibition match will be played Tuesday, the second day of the tournament. The team of Jean Murdock and Jo Rolling will play two guys—Larry LaLonde and Dick Tow. This is going to be a very interesting match, believe me. I have a feeling that this might be the beginning of something big in Senior Tennis. I hope to have more to say about this match later on. They're all very good players, and fine athletes. No betting, please! (smiles) Come watch this great one-hour exhibition match.

Remember two things: There's still time to sign up for the Dow tournament, and no foot faults!

Tennis Rules Quiz

By David Sommer

Q. Server makes a good first serve and throws the second ball behind him. Receiver finds this distracting and says so. Is this a Hindrance, and if so, what should be done about it?

A. Rule 21: "If a player commits any act which hinders his opponent in making a stroke, then, if this is deliberate, he shall lose the point or if involuntary, the point shall be replayed." Now obviously this requires judgment as to what reasonably hinders an opponent—we wouldn't claim, for example, that the squeak a shoe occasionally makes is a hindrance, even though some very sensitive player may find it so. The USTA 2002 Rules of Tennis gives as an example of an involuntary hindrance "a hat blowing off." Roger Boyer of Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center tells me that in refereed matches discarding a second ball is treated as "involuntary" (meaning a let is called) on the first instance, with a warning given. Subsequent instances are treated as "deliberate" and result in loss of point. (Thanks to Wally Young for raising this question.)

Q. I was playing in a doubles match. Opponent lobbed, with the ball landing near the baseline. My partner called "Out," but I felt it was good and returned it, saying "It's good—play on!" What should be done?

A. Regardless of whether opponents then "played on" or not, play should stop and a let called.

Working Out?
Drink Up!

By UCare Minnesota

Stay healthy during your workouts!
Drinking water is especially important if you're exercising, because you're sweating off extra fluids. UCare Minnesota wants to help you stay hydrated with this simple quiz, which tests your knowl- edge of fluid replacement and exercise.

- 1. During physical activity, people lose about 4 cups of fluid an hour. True False
- 2. People only need to drink fluids before exercising. True False
- 3. Drinking when you're thirsty will prevent dehydra- tion. True False

How did you do?

- 1. True. Dehydration results if that fluid is not replaced.
- 2. False. It's important to drink fluids before, during, and after exercise:

Before: Drink at least 2 cups of fluid two hours before exercise. About five to 15 minutes before you begin, drink another 2 cups.

During: Drink 1/2 to 1 cup every 15 to 20 minutes.

After: Drink 2 cups for every pound you lose through physical activity—that's water you're losing immedi- ately, not fat—and continue to drink throughout the day.

- 3. False. By the time you're thirsty, you're already on your way to becoming dehydrated. Other early warning signs of dehydration include headache, appetite loss, dry mouth and eyes, fatigue, and lightheadedness.

UCare Minnesota is an independent, nonprofit health maintenance organization (HMO) serving more than 100,000 members. Q. In a doubles match all four players said they couldn't see whether a ball was good or out. Should a let be called? This actually occurred in a match I played recently, and we decided to call a let. Were we correct?

could see just where the ball landed! Code 8 is very clear on this: “Any ball that cannot be called out is considered to have been good. A player may not claim a let on the basis of not seeing a ball.” Just because none of the four players saw where the ball landed does not change the interpretation. Sometimes it takes an extreme case like this to illustrate a truth: Any ball that cannot be called out is considered to have been good.
