Remembering Ernie Greene

By Sue Larson

Many of us are playing tennis and hitting the strokes taught to us by Ernie Greene, Instructor for Senior Tennis Players Club, and Director of the Jack Dow Tournament for five years.

Ernie died in 2002 but his legacy goes on through the hundreds and hundreds of tennis players he taught through his many years of coaching, mentoring and befriending.

Ernie's death was a great loss for tennis. One of the ways his memory is being preserved is through the Ernie Greene Scholarship Fund.

You can help the scholarship grow by attending the first Ernie Greene Scholarship Fund banquet on Saturday, October 4 at 6:00 PM on the courts of the Fort Snelling Tennis and Learning Center. Cost of the banquet is $50, or $400 for a table of eight, with all proceeds going to the scholarship fund.

The night's activities include a social hour, dinner entertainment and a silent auction. WCCO Radio's Charlie Boone will emcee the event, which promises to be one of the highlights of the tennis year.

To purchase tickets, to donate silent auction items, or for other information call Lucille Little at 651-777-5291, Percy Hughes at 952-831-2872 or Ronnac Wagner at 952-938-5785.

As well, if you have a favorite story about Ernie that you would like told at the banquet during the "Remember Ernie" portion of the program, send them via email to Betsy Mitchell at brm@pmlink.com or call her at 612-781-2876. Join us for a great evening of fun and "Remembering Ernie".

Get In The Game!

Inside is a revised Indoor Tennis schedule. Some new places and times have been added. Look it over and call the captain of any group you'd be interested in joining.

In some cases, captains are still looking for regulars. For example Fred Wright 952-938-1242 needs 3.0 players at Williston Tuesdays 11:30-1:00 and Thursdays 8:00-9:30 AM; and David Sommer 612-276-1313 needs 3.5+ players at Fort Snelling Monday and Wednesday mornings. Or you can sign up as a sub with one or several captains.

2. Confirm the first date play will start and the last date.
3. Confirm the cost per regular player.
4. Alert proper contact person regarding problems relating to facility.
5. Thank contact person for allowing our group to use their facility.
6. Ask contact person if there is any concerns the captain should know about.

G. Tennis balls:

1. Good balls to use on the type of courts we use: check with assistant director of training or one of the instructors.
2. Purchase balls for your group (for indoor play) if that is the wish of your group and is acceptable to you.
3. Tennis balls purchased for club use are not subject to Minnesota sales tax—contact a board member for more information.
4. Number of times to use new tennis balls is usually no more than twice.

H. How to improve the tennis player's experience:

1. Greet new walk-on players—ask them to return.
2. Come early to courts; check that courts are clear and ready for playing.
3. Have regular indoor players select their own substitute and communicate this to you. This is a major concern because indoor players do not like it when all courts do not have four players.
4. For outdoor play, captain can bring wrench and measuring tape so that net can be adjusted if not set at proper height.
5. For outdoor play captain could bring a broom and a squeegee for use in getting courts ready for play.
6. Encourage players to bring drinking water for themselves.
7. Let players know you are the captain—they like the feeling that you are in control and know what you are doing.
8. For indoor substitutes tell them the cost to play and where to check in. Also ask them to be early.

9. If regular indoor player or a substitute does not show be sure to contact them and find out what happened. Let them know that you and the other players do not appreciate it when a regular or substitute does not show or is late.
10. Keep an eye out for other players that could replace you at some future date or that could be captain when you are not able to attend.
11. If possible have cell telephone available for use in case of events such as an emergency, and calling no shows.
12. For new players, you may want to make it a point to play tennis with them. You can help them feel more comfortable with the group, help them learn how to play better, encourage them to return, encourage them to take free tennis lessons through STPC, etc.
13. For outdoor play, you should try to not have players playing for an extended period of time with two or three players on a court. These people should be allowed to join a group of four players during some of their play time.
14. Bring an extra tennis racket in case a player breaks their racket or strings.
15. Bring tennis balls in case players forget to bring tennis balls.
16. Handy tools for a captain include a deck of cards, USTA rule book, whistle, etc.
17. Bring extra copies of regular and substitute players list in case regular player or substitute needs a copy.
18. On handout with regular and substitute players listed you may want to indicate when substitutes plan to travel, if they can be called on short notice, e-mail address, etc.

I. How captains can get help:

1. Regarding rules, call assistant STPC training director.
2. Regarding player behavior, unpaid dues, or other program issues, call one of the STPC officers listed in the current issue of Senior Tennis Times. If a player wants to voice a complaint regarding another player, the complaint needs to be written down with specifics of the incident (day, time, location, person or persons involved, etc.) It should then be sent to the STPC president.

Tennis Captain's Guidelines

Editor's Note: These guidelines were adopted at the June STPC Board meeting. Players, as well as captains, should read and understand, since these represent what you should expect on the court.

- A. Team captains' knowledge and skill in dealing with people are the keys to the success of the Senior Tennis Players Club, Inc. activities.
- B. The STPC board hosts an annual "thank you" meal for captains or provides an alternative form of recognition.
- C. Some successful STPC captains have implemented practices similar to the following (for indoor & outdoor play):
  1. Start the group on time, break at agreed upon time, and end on time.
  2. Arrive early so that you can check the courts before play starts.
  3. Check courts after play is complete to be sure courts are left as they were when you arrived.
  4. Divide players up for play. There are several commonly used ways to do this. Some methods that are used are charts; random numbers; by ability (skill) level; at each period of play winners move in one direction and losers move the other direction; playing cards.
  5. Leave the courts at the proper time.
  6. In case of difficult people, section 9.5 of the STPC bylaws may provide some help. The wording of section 9.5 follows: "in all activities of the club, including tennis play, tournaments, drills, parties, social events and club meetings of every kind, members shall conduct themselves in accordance with customary standards of sportsmanship, courtesy, decency, decorum and tennis etiquette and shall abide by the bylaws and policies of the club, rules of other clubs and facilities used by the club, rules, regulations and codes governing tennis play of the USTA and other tennis organizations, and all applicable local, state and federal laws, rules and regulations. The board shall have the right to investigate, hear, and rule on alleged violations of such standards and shall have the power to impose appropriate discipline on violators including but not limited to censure, warnings, withdrawal of privileges of membership or conditional or unconditional revocation of club membership."

7. Ask all players if they are current STPC member. Check current roster and if not listed in roster, latest copy of Senior Tennis Times. Inform them that participation in STPC programs requires that all players be current members. Provide non-member with telephone number to call to get information about joining STPC.
  8. Check that the Senior Tennis Times newsletter contains correct information about your group. Contact schedule coordinator if entries are not correct.
- D. Some successful captains have implemented practices similar to the following (for indoor play):
    1. Invite regular players to play according to criteria specified. Examples of criteria follow: men only, women only, mixed, rating or level of play expected.
    2. Compile substitute list for regular players to call for a substitute.
    3. Alert regular players about the date play will start and the date it will end. Also the cost per play time.
    4. Provide regular players with a telephone list of regular players and substitutes.
    5. Do everything possible to avoid no shows by regular players or substitutes.
    6. Suggest methods of selecting substitutes, especially new players. Substitute is responsible for contacting regular players regarding reimbursement of playing fee.
  - E. Some successful captains have implemented practices similar to the following (for outdoor play):
    1. For STPC statistics please have all players sign in.
    2. If weather gets bad get players off courts.
  - F. Working with the indoor facility where play occurs:
    1. Confirm time and day of play each year with facility coordinator and inform the STPC schedule coordinator for the Senior Tennis Times. Call St. Paul or Minneapolis schedule coordinator for current information.

Everyone a Winner!

By Chuck Supplee

The Grandparent/Grandchild Tournament: A beautiful day, beautiful people, all good sports!

A Division winners were John Farnham and Jon Reed with second place to Joell Anderson and Chris Anderson.

AA Division winners were Kevin Farley and Jackson Farley with second place to Floyd Laumann and Sarah Bell. Actually, Kearney Frantsen and Derek Gee belonged in this bracket as they got a fast count.

Lee Werner, with the help of a good crew, Jim Tone, Bill Stamm, Don and Dorothy Snyder and Dotti Brazeal pitched in to make for a successful tourney. Ten teams in each division had a fun time. A celebrity team of Jean Barnett, Lois Bunday, Dorothy Warner and Amy Ward had a great tennis match. This team took the place of Ken Landro and George Bush Sr. on very short notice!

The photos of the tourney—like our friend Connie Custedo used to say—will be published in the Chicago Tribune and the New York Times. He said to look in the Zoo Section!

Percy's Tennis Rhythms

By Percy Hughes

It's a pleasure to know people who are humble, capable, and very comfortable to be around. One such person is Willie Prawdzik. Willie, a long time member of our club along with his wife Margret, who by the way, became a 2003 Jack Dow Tournament winner. Now I'm sure Willie had something to do with Margret winning this year—he was on the sidelines for all of her matches. (smiles) Willie has a thing about clean courts. He's at my Wednesday AM Bryant Park courts early with his blower, cleaning up debris. He has professional equipment for court maintenance that could get him a job at the US Open if he were to apply. He's on our mentor Roger Boyer's ICT team also. Thanks for being of help to my Bryant Park class, Willie—I have the cleanest courts for lessons in the entire TC area. He also brings his ICT experience to the students.

Read this issue for the STPC Free Lessons and Drills Schedule! All but one of the indoor lessons start Labor Day week. Williston's schedule starts the following week. I repeat: read your newsletter, please.

Dave Mathews—Tennis Icon, USPTA Pro, and this region's Head Tennis Equipment and Penn balls Director, has been a great booster of our club's activities for many years, helping with our clinics and other activities. There's more to tell about Dave, and I'll do that in the next issue. It's a pleasure to watch pros like Dave and our mentor Roger Boyer play. They usually play Wednesday afternoons at the Reed/Sweatt courts. They make a great doubles team—check out their Wednesday afternoon matches—they're open to everyone to watch, and learn.

I've talked too much. But do go to the Ernie Greene Scholarship Banquet on October 4. Stay on court as much as possible, and remember, no foot faults!!

Bad Sport, Blown Match

By David Sommer

In the Wimbledon match between Greg Rusedski and Andy Roddick, Rusedski mistook an "out" call from a spectator as coming from an official. He asked the umpire to replay the point. The umpire refused. Thereafter Rusedski completely "lost it"—using profanity, throwing water bottles, etc. You may remember the story. Up to that point, Rusedski was down by two very close sets (both 7-6), but was leading in the third 5-2. Roddick went on to win five straight games and the match.

Even if Rusedski had been right in calling for a let, he showed incredibly bad sportsmanship. But he wasn't right. According to Rule 13, USTA Comment 13.2, we read "Note that a spectator's call ('out', 'fault', or other), ... is not basis for replaying the point." Rusedski, as an experienced professional, should have known this and should not have requested a replay.

Lifestyle choices can rein in high blood pressure

By UCare Minnesota

High blood pressure, or hypertension, is a common condition, and the risk for it rises with age. About 60% of Americans age 60 and older suffer from it. It can lead to heart disease, stroke, kidney disease, heart failure, and other problems.

“High blood pressure usually doesn’t have any symptoms, but it takes its toll over the years,” said Barry Baines, M.D., Medicare Medical Director for UCare Minnesota, which offers three health insurance plans for seniors. “It’s important to keep your blood pressure under control.”

Now the good news: Not only can healthy habits cut the risk of developing hypertension, but they also can help people with this condition keep it under control.

If you have hypertension, take this advice to heart:

Manage your weight. Losing just 10 pounds can reduce blood pressure in overweight people with hypertension.

Exercise regularly. Thirty minutes of moderate exercise—such as brisk walking—on most, if not all, days of the week is one of the best ways to manage hypertension. Talk to your doctor about an appropriate workout.

Limit alcohol. If you drink, do so only in moderation. For men, this means no more than two daily drinks, and for women, no more than one drink per day.

Restrict sodium intake. Consume no more than 2.4 grams of sodium—equal to about 1 teaspoon of table salt—daily.

Follow a heart-healthy diet. In addition to limiting sodium, it’s wise to cut back on total fat, saturated fat, and cholesterol.

If you smoke, quit. Smoking significantly raises blood pressure.

If your doctor prescribes medication for you, take it exactly as directed. But healthy habits are still important. They may help your medicine work better.

UCare Minnesota is an independent, nonprofit health maintenance organization (HMO) serving more than 100,000 members. UCare offers three health plans for seniors: UCare for Seniors, a Medicare+Choice product for Medicare beneficiaries in the metropolitan area and adjacent counties; UCare SeniorSelect, a Medicare Select product; and Minnesota Senior Health Options for seniors eligible for Medical Assistance with or without Medicare. For more information, visit www.ucare.org or call (612) 676-3500 or 1-877-523-1518 (toll free). The TTY number is (612) 676-6810 or 1-800-688-2534 (toll free).

“Boy, they take the ranking system seriously at this club!”

In Memory...

Jim McCue, age 81, of Eden Prairie, died peacefully on Aug. 1, 2003. Preceded in death by loving wife of 50 years, Nyla. Survived by 2 children, Patrick & wife Gail, and Mary McCue; 2 grandchildren, Martin and Rike; many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends; and his beloved cats, Milo, Leo and Jack. Percy Hughes remembers Jim, a long-time STPC member: "We went through junior and senior high school together—lost track of each other through the Second War years, didn't really catch up with each other until our senior years. STPC became a part of Jim's world. He started coming to my class. I could see he really enjoyed the sport, plus the fellowship, which is a big part of senior group tennis lessons. Jim played until he was physically unable. He stayed with us even then, coming early to sign in the students and handle the money paid for the indoor fee. Thanks, Jim, you'll always be a part of my best thoughts and memories. Many of us (club members) were at his funeral, Tuesday, August 5, 2003."
